Mrs. Grant's Pension.

The San Francisco Chronicle says Congress will of course lose no time in passing the bill granting a pension of $5,000 to the widow of ex-President Grant. Usage requires it; three ex-President's wives—Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Tyler, and Mrs. Garfield—are drawing the same amount yearly; if any man's widow is entitled to a pension it is Mrs. Grant.

It is gratifying to learn that the sale of Grant's book will almost to a certainty relieve the Grant family from any risk of want. There will be enough money realized, we are told, to support all the children after the death of Mrs. Grant, and judging from the evidences which the sons have given of inaptitude for business, the result may be regarded as a matter of congratulation. A son of General Grant's in extreme poverty would be a melancholy spectacle, and one that would make every American blush for shame.

The Grant Monument Fund.

The New York Herald thinks the Grant Monument Committee ought by this time to be convinced of the futility of its plan. The committee organized itself and advertised at the instance of A. B. Cornell for $1,000,000. They have raised, in four months, a "little over $100,000. Only a minority of the committee have subscribed. The half-dozen principal managers who got up the committee and put the five hundred names on the list ask for a greater degree of confidence in their discretion than the public, or even a majority of their own associates, are willing to accord. The request for $1,000,000 to be contributed, for them to spend on any kind of monument they see fit, it is clear to everybody but themselves, the people at large pronounce unreasonable.

The Battle for Silver.

A Washington special apparently confirms the report that Treasurer Jordan favors the suspension of $1, $2 and $5, legal tenders, so as to force silver into circulation. He believes if the banks learn that silver dollars are in this way forced into circulation they can get rid of this inconvenient form of money by depositing silver dollars to secure circulation and upon them issue a circulation of small notes. If that can be done the great problem of what to do with silver dollars would be solved. He does not think the bankers would voluntarily accede to such a proposition, but if legal tenders below $10 were legislated, out of use he believes they would promptly accept the situation.

B. J. Shay, who was shot by J. C. Brown in the Nevada Restaurant, San Francisco, on the 23d of October last while taking dinner with Brown's wife, died Tuesday morning. A charge of murder was placed against Brown in the prison register. Brown has been in prison since the shooting. Shay left a deposition, in which he relates the circumstances of the crime stating that the cause was known to the clergyman who attended him in his last moments.

A Rome dispatch says the College of the Propaganda announces that up to November 1st, in the vicariate of Cochinchina, 9 missionaries, 7 native priests, 60 catechists, 270 members of religious orders, and 24,000 Christians were massacred, 200 parishes, 17 orphan asylums and 10 convents were destroyed, and 225 churches were burned.

Why don't Reno, like Truckee, do something to get rid of the Chinese? If the latter can support a steam laundry, Reno can support two or three, for it has more China laundries to the square inch than any town of its size on the Coast. Our dry goods merchants might feel the depression in the sale of shirt buttons if the Chinese were fired.

The Treasury Department has assured Congressman Morrow that no more certificates will be issued to Chinese. The light is certainly spreading.

Plot to Steal the Remains of Vanderbilt.

New York, Dec. 14th.—Phillip McCarty and Charles Smith were arrested this morning for theft. In their rooms were found papers and memoranda referring to a scheme to rob the Vanderbilt tomb at New Dorp. Iron gates to the old Moravian Cemetery at New Dorp, Staten Island, are closed every night at six o'clock, and four of Pinkerton's detectives, armed with heavy navy revolvers, take the place of three similarly armed men who during the afternoon have been on guard at the tomb of Wm. H. Vanderbilt. Others are concealed in bushes around the tomb, while the roads on either side of the gate are well watched. During the day the guard is less numerous than at night, but precautions are not relaxed. To-day two sentry boxes were put in position near the tomb. Some of the precautions taken to prevent violation of the tomb are such that an account of them cannot be published. A niche in the vault in which the coffin of the dead millionaire is connected with an electric alarm, and if a tunnel could be driven to the tomb, any attempt to remove the body or any tampering with the wires of the alarm would be made known immediately at the headquarters of the detectives. A registering alarm clock has been placed near the gate of the vault, and at short intervals a guard is required to register his presence at the tomb. No attempt to remove the body is expected, in view of the precautions taken to prevent it, but the watch over the tomb will be maintained in the same manner until the mausoleum is finished. It will be almost impossible for any number of grave robbers to carry away the body.

Randall's Victory.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The first day's debate on the change of rules ended with the tide turning for Randall. At the opening of the session it seemed that all the members of Congress, with the exception of a handful, were against the Pennsylvania member. It was said that he was the tyrant of the House and a great obstructionist. It was said that the members of the Appropriations Committee virtually constituted the House, and it seemed that Randall would be prostrated by a tornado of opposition, but after the first hour's debate yesterday, during which he did not speak ten minutes, the politicians said there were signs in the sky of a panic. In case there is a stampede, Randall will win, as the rules will not be changed.

It is said that Morrison has made a canvass of the Democratic side of the House and has found that 100 members favor a change of the rules, while eighty-three oppose any change. Holman will oppose any alteration in the rules. On the Republican side ex-Governor Long, McKinney, of Ohio, and Ryan will not follow Reed and Hiscock in their approval of a change. It now looks as though Morrison has a much harder fight on hand than it was supposed at the opening of Congress, and it shows what an organizer Randall is. The debate was continued to-day.

A Type Setting Contest.

New York, Dec. 15.—The type-setting contest between Joseph McCann of the Herald, and W. C. Barnes, of the World, for the championship of the city and State, took place here to-day, in the presence of a large number of printers. The purse contended for was $1,000. The trial lasted four hours, beginning at 11 o'clock. The type was minion, set without paragraphs. Barnes finished his first 1,000 ems in 29 minutes and 30 seconds, and McCann completed his 1,000 ems two minutes later. At 3 o'clock, when time was called, McCann had set 8,062½ ems, and Barnes had 7,951. Then each man was obliged to correct his own proofs. When the corrections had been made and the number of lines deducted which each man had lost through mistakes, it was found that McCann had 7,662½ ems to his credit, and Barnes 6,376. McCann was declared the winner.

Senator Teller, of Colorado, on Wednesday introduced a bill to provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver dollars.

ARTIFICIAL EGGS.

A Remarkable Story—No Further Use For Hens.

New York, December 14—Recently the provision dealers in Patterson, N. J., have had many complaints about eggs. One dealer had an alleged farmer arrested for selling ancient eggs that had been treated in some way so as to look like fresh eggs. Another dealer tried some eggs and found that the shells were made of plaster of paris, and the interior of a chemical mixture. Several provision dealers say there is a factory in New York for manufacturing artificial eggs but others say that the eggs "limed."

The Tribune this morning tells of a scene yesterday in a "back room" on Broadway, in which a curious invention was shown to provision dealers and merchants. It says that the invention consisted of a number of artificial eggs, which resembles the real article so exactly that none but an expert could distinguish them. The shells were made clear and transparent, and the shape was perfectly modeled. The portion surrounding the yolk are made of albumen and the yolk itself of ground carrot and saffron. Three of these artificial eggs were placed on a platter by the exhibitor with half a dozen real ones, and the men told to select the bogus ones from the collection.

When each had tried and failed the exhibitor said: "Now gentlemen, you can test them in another way." A frying pan was then placed on the stove and in a few minutes it began to simmer. Two artificial eggs were picked up and their shells broken and their contents dropped into the hot pan, where they soon began to simmer and sputter. A little salt and pepper a brisk two minutes stirring with a fork, and as fine a dish of scrambled eggs as could be prepared at a restaurant was placed before the expectant guests. "Help yourselves, gentlemen; they are as good as the real article. Nothing poisonous or disagreeable about them." This invitation was complied with at once, and the several verdicts were "delicious." "Better than the real article." "What are they made of?" "They are not artificial, but fresh eggs from the country." "Well, gentlemen," smilingly responded the exhibitor, "whether real or artificial I can make any quantity of those eggs at the cost of about half a cent apiece, while you cannot buy their equal for less than two or three cents."

Government Control of Telegraphs.

The New York Mail and Express contains a strong indorsement by Cyrus W. Field of Senator Edmund's bill regarding Government control of the telegraph. He says: "In my opinion the time has come when the Government should purchase the telegraph lines of the country. A law should be passed by Congress making all purchases, so that every company should be bound by the same principle. Each telegraph company should select an arbitrator and the Government choose another. If these disagree, they ought to choose a third, who should be a man thoroughly experienced, and regarded as an expert in the business. These arbitrators should have power to examine reports and accounts, so as to arrive at the actual net profits.

To Compete With the Chinese.

The Secretary of the Chicago branch of the International Union was seen in regard to taking cigar-makers to San Francisco to compete with coolies. He said that about eighty Chicago men had signified their wishes to go to San Francisco. Arrangements had been made with the New York Central and Union Pacific roads to take the men there at the rate of $39 each, no matter where they take the train. Members of the Union are guaranteed from $8 up for mould work, and $12 up for hand work. The rates which prevail in Chicago are $7 and $8. The necessary funds will be advanced by the Union to any one wishing to go and is unable to pay his fare, the money so advanced to be repaid by installments of 15 per cent of his earnings weekly.

O'Donnell's humbug agitation is likely to do far more injury to those prominently engaged in it than to the Chinese.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-cw-1yr

Have you got your costume picked out for the K. of P. masquerade on New Year's night?

The White Pine News says Donaldson Post, G. A. R., was organized at Taylor, White Pine county, last Saturday.

The Paradise Valley Mining Company has let a contract to run a tunnel 110 feet below tunnel No. 4, on the ledge.

The Silver King Mining Company disbursed a monthly dividend of 25 cents per share, aggregating $25,000 Wednesday.

Acting Governor Laughton has nominated C. N. Harris, of the Carson Index, as Captain and Aid-de-Camp to the Adjutant General.

Mrs. Herbert Coffin is visiting Reno friends, while Herbert is temporarily stationed at Mound House during the absence of J. T. Davis.

Several of the leading Chinese contractors of Truckee came to Reno after the agitation there, feeling a little afraid of the resolute Truckeekites.

There are in the State Prison from Washoe County forty-two prisoners, twenty-three of whom have been convicted since January 1, 1895.

Allen Bragg came in from his Long Valley ranch Wednesday evening accompanied by his wife, who left last evening on a visit to her sisters in Sacramento.

The Ogden Daily News will be enlarged on the first of January, and will then receive and publish, daily, full and complete telegraphic reports from all parts of the world.

A great many of the young lady boarders of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls departed yesterday morning for their homes to spend the holidays, while several are visiting their Reno schoolmates.

Dennis E. McCarthy, proprietor of the Virginia, Nevada, Chronicle, died Wednesday night at Irvington, California, of dropsy. He has been connected with the Pacific Coast press for the past thirty years.

Princess Colonna, nee Eva Mackay, daughter of John W. Mackay, of San Francisco, gave birth to a son Monday at Colonna palace, near Naples. The announcement was made in a private cablegram to friends in San Francisco.

A rich gold ledge has been discovered, says the Walker Lake Bulletin, within the Reservation line on the Wasatch range. The discoverer made no location as some Indian may during the next ten years want to go up there and gather a pint of pine nuts.

There is trouble over the possession of the Caesar mine, forty miles northwest of Pioche, Lincoln county. Teams sent there to haul ore from the mine last Saturday returned empty, the drivers having been ordered off by a party of men from Taylor, White Pine county.

The experiment of extracting or collecting the soda contained in the water of Owens Lake by pumping it into large vats excavated along the shore and allowing it to evaporate, is said to have resulted satisfactorily. Mr. Yerington is having more vats prepared and operations will be conducted on an extensive scale next Spring.

"Rosedale"

The "Eureka Dramatic Club" filled the Opera House last Friday night and treated the Eurekaites to "Rosedale." In criticizing the amateurs the Standard speaks as follows of those taking part who are so well known in Reno. The two young ladies having so often shown their talent in the exhibitions given by Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls: "The play has never before been given in Eureka, and the encomiums passed upon those taking part, by the audience were flattering indeed. Mr. C. M. Fassett as Col. Cavendish May did well, but in our judgement he is capable of doing better. In the characters sustained by the ladies, all were most admirable. Miss Effie Phillips as Lady Florence May, acted the part admirably. As an amateur she is to be complimented. Her stage actions and manners were easy and natural and carried with them the true expressions of feeling in a sacrifice of love or fortune. Miss Grace Fardy, as Rosa Leigh, the sprightly character of the play, acted the part capably, and sustained her already well earned laurels. The rendition of the songs "Pierrot" and "The Cows are in the Corn" were loudly applauded by the audience. The little lady has a beautiful voice and deserves no little compliment upon the grateful nature of her acting.

Masquerade at Wadsworth.

The Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen will give their second annual masquerade at Wadsworth on the 15th of next month. The boys are sparing no pains to make this ball a success socially as well as financially, and if we can judge by their former efforts they will have no trouble. Special rates from all points on the Truckee division of the Central Pacific Railroad will be given to all who wish to attend and it is very probable that there will be a good delegation present from Truckee, Reno and other places along the road.

Assessment List.

The following is a complete list of outstanding assessments upon stocks listed at the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board, with the dates upon which they will become delinquent in the Board:

A Truckee Wedding.

At half past four o'clock Monday afternoon, Fred A. Irish and Emma D. Schaffer, daughter of Geo. Schaffer, the big lumber dealer, were married. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Truckee, by Rev. L. Ewing. Only the members of the Schaffer family were present. Including the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer there were twenty-six in attendance.

Two Beautiful Prizes Given Away at Nasby's Bazaar.

A ticket will be given to every purchaser of one dollar's worth or upwards of goods, entitling them to a chance for the following beautiful prizes: First prize, a celluloid manicure set, plush case, valued at $15. Second prize, a large album, valued at $10. The drawing will take place January 2, 1896. The prizes can be seen in the show window.

Smelting Furnace at Reno.

It is rumored says the Virginia Chronicle that a smelting furnace will be erected at Reno next Spring to reduce the extensive deposits of carbonate ore in Washoe county, and the refractory ores of the Comstock lode, providing Congress does not pass any law to further depreciate the value of silver.

The Paradise Valley Mining Company, by its attorneys, McMillan & Hannah, have brought suit in the District Court at Winnemucca to set aside the application for a patent of Allen Middleton to 500 feet of the Red Deer mine, claimed by the plaintiff. J. V. McCurdy has also brought suit against Middleton for an undivided interest of 50 feet in the Red Deer mine.

D. W. Leach has invented an ice-cutting machine which bids fair to bring him in a fortune. Experiments have been made with the new machine upon the ice pond of the Boca Mill Company, and the result is entirely satisfactory.

The Forthcoming Overland.

Advance notes of the Overland Monthly for January promise a number of special interest. This will be the "Holiday Issue," and it has been decided to publish it a few days before Christmas.

The first article will be Leonard Kip's Christmas Story, entitled "Golden Graves," a tale of the Mines at "Lower Bar," in the stirring times of '49.

Andrew McFarland Davis will contribute a historical study of the famous "Voyage of the Ursulines" across the Atlantic in 1727, in the ill-fated ship "Gironde."

Miss Helen Lake's new novel of California life, entitled "For Money," will begin in this issue, and the first installments show a distinct advance upon the best of Miss Lake's previous works. It promises to be a strong, earnest story, full of fidelity to Pacific Coast society and manners.

"An Autumn Ramble in Washington Territory," and an article on "Water Rights in British Columbia," will show that the Overland is not unmindful of the Great North Pacific Region."

Kate Heath will contribute a Holiday Story, "Mr. Grigg's Christmas," a sketch full of human interest, love and pathos.

The picturesque features of Mexico will seldom be better described than by Mr. D. S. Richardson, formerly Minister Foster's Secretary, in his "Cruise Among the Floating Islands."

Hon. A. A. Sargent will write again of the Chinese Problem and the recent agitation against the Chinese. His article is a reply to a writer in the December Overland. Some "Observations on Chinese Labor," by H. Shewin, will give the brighter side of the picture.

Perhaps the article that will attract most attention is entitled "The Lost Journals of a Pioneer." Some old books, Mrs., etc., were recently found buried in the Coast Range, and a Chapter of Comments upon events of many years ago in Sacramento and San Francisco will appear in the January Overland.

Sol Sheridan will contribute one of his attractive stories. There will be poems by Agnes A. Manning, Francis E. Sheldon, and Miss Coolbirth. The Book Reviews, recent verse, editorials, etc., will be up to the Overland's high standard. The Overland Monthly, 120 Butler St., San Francisco.

Truckee Items.

Republican, 16th.

The skating is first-class on the various ponds in this vicinity.

The saloon keepers of Truckee will buy no more Chinese made cigars.

There are two cases of Winchester rifles in Chinatown, ready for emergencies.

It is said that steps will be taken throughout the coast to boycott box-factories employing Chinese workmen.

G. M. Giffen went to Sacramento Sunday, on business connected with the steam laundry, and returned yesterday.

The ice companies could commence cutting ice at once, but will delay another week providing the weather holds good.

An Indian brought a fine lot of ducks and geese from the Truckee Meadows this morning. They went off like hot cakes.

John Nagle, Superintendent of the Mountain Ice Company, was in town yesterday. He reports eight inches of first-class ice on the pond at Cuba.

James McDonald, of Prosser Creek, has sent up word that he will discharge the Chinese help employed about his works, as soon as he can replace them by white laborers.

Many claims against the Chinese firms of Truckee have been pressed this week. One firm, Wing Chung Lung, has gone to the wall, and others are in a shaky condition, financially.

Supt. James McDonald, of Prosser Creek, was in Truckee to-day. He says that there was a slight thaw there last night, but that the prospects for a good ice crop are excellent, providing there is no storm during the next few days.

The anti-Chinese meeting last Saturday evening, contained a larger proportion of business men than any of the previous meetings. Everything was conducted in the most orderly and law-abiding manner. Many influential men made addresses. All committees were given one week further in which to conclude the work of the citizens' meetings. Secret organizations will doubtless be formed at that time, and unless they are carefully controlled, trouble will ensue. The Chinamen claim to have detectives in town, and say that troops will be sent to Truckee at the first intimation of trouble. The excitement is most intense, and the result cannot be foreshadowed. It is devoutly to be hoped that calmer counsels will prevail.
